Fairbanks at Bijou. At the Bijou to-morrow, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Douglas Fairbanks will be seen in his latest aircraft production, "In Again, Out Again," which presents various new dangers and ways of humorously escaping them. The Fairbanks comedy together with a rapacious theme which will keep the audience on edge from start to finish. In addition to the usual extra features the fifteenth chapter of "The Great Secret" featuring Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, will be presented on Wednesday and Thursday. On Friday and Saturday Margaret Illington will make her screen debut. "The Sacrifice," a virile story of war-time and international politics. Added features will be provided on the same program.

George Walsh, One Day Only.

George Walsh, one of the most popular of the major Fox stars, will be seen in "The Island of Desire" at the Odeon to-morrow only.

Jungle hurricanes, volcanic eruptions and terrific earthquakes combine with splendid acting and gripping story to make "The Island of Desire," the most thrilling motion picture yet produced. The camera has been turned on a field which is rich in possibilities, yet has not been touched, and the result is a photodrama with endings the best of all.

On Tuesday only, Valeska Surratt will be seen in "The Immigrant," a feature in which she is seen to splendid advantage. Wednesday's feature will be "Bella Donna," in which Pauline Frederick is the star. Friday, Douglas Fairbanks, the man whose smile never wears off, will be seen in "Flirting With Fate." Saturday, he will be seen in a Vitagraph extraordinary feature, "The More Excellent Way," a story of how the heart of a woman found fulfillment in the fires of love's crucible. Saturday, in response to instant demand of movie patrons, the Odeon will play a return engagement of Ethel Barrymore, in "The Awakening of Helena Ritchie." Special features will be added to the program each day.

Triangle Features at Isis.

Triangle features predominate on the Isis program this week, the attraction to-morrow and Tuesday being Charles Ray, in "The Pinch Hitter," described as a corking baseball play, marking with humorous episode and exciting situations. Sylvia Breamer, an Australian beauty, makes her debut on the screen as leading woman in this production. On Wednesday and Thursday another episode of "The Seven Deadly Sins" will be presented, with H. B. Warner starred in "Wrath." Shirley Mason and George Le Gendre are in the supporting cast. "Wrath" tells a story of Russian intrigue and ammunition plots. Friday and Saturday Wilfred Lucas will be featured in "Hands Up," a startling play, swift of action, full of surprising situations. Additional features will be supplied, including comedies, educational features, and trivologues with each of the main productions.

Viola Dana at Colonial.

Viola Dana is the star of "Gods Law and Man's" the feature at the Colonial to-morrow and Tuesday. It is a vivid picturization of the gripping story by Paul Trent, "A Wife by Purchase." An added feature the most sensational of the Keystone productions, "Her Nature Dance," will be the offering on Wednesday and Thursday, June Elvidge, the famous blonde girl; Carlyle Blackwell and Arthur Ashley will be seen in "The Page Mystery." It is a fascinating story combining love and despair, with a background of Adirondack snow for its setting. On Friday and Saturday Virginia Pearson, the charming William Fox star, will be seen in "Royal Romance," assisted by Irving Cummings and an all-star cast. This production is rightfully termed "the operetta of the screen," being a charming story of romance, intrigue and love. Extra features of the highest standard will be added to the program each day.

Mary Miles Minter at Victor.

Mary Miles Minter well remembered here for her excellent work with the

SPEAKS ON FISH AS FOOD

Miss MacDonald to Tell How to Meet Catering Difficulties of Breakfast Table.

Miss Rose MacDonald, of the Bureau of Fisheries, will speak on Thursday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock, before the Equal Suffrage League of Richmond on "How to Meet the Catering Difficulties of the Breakfast Table." The Bureau of Fisheries is anxious that women all over the country shall know more of fish as food, and to this end, Miss MacDonald has recently arranged more than fifty recipes for the use of smoked and salt fish.

The meeting will be held under the auspices of the agriculture and thrift committee of the Equal Suffrage League of Richmond, of which Mrs. Horace Wellford Jones is chairman. All women's organizations, housewives and individuals who are interested in thrift are invited.

Class in Elementary Hygiene.

Registration for entrance into the new classes in elementary hygiene and home care which are shortly to be formed must be made at once with Mrs. Anna E. Clegg, education secretary, its membership in each class limited to twenty. The secretary may be communicated with at Randolph 5-60. The classes will hold twice weekly sessions, under the direction of Miss Maria Hamilton Chappell.
